1. The following observations were made in Neustrelitz (N 54/U 54) :

a. The kaserne on Ponzlinerstrasse was occupied to capacity. Officers and men entering and leaving the kaserne wore tank and artillery insignia.

b. Seven groups of nine EM each underwent training in the yard, and about 60 EM were trained with drum-magazine submachine guns at the small training field near the kaserne. Two more groups of 10 EM each practiced with AA machine guns.

c. One T 34 tank was observed near the kaserne garages. Numerous logs of 2 to 5-meter length were dumped between the garages.

2. Many officers were observed at a house on Luisenstrasse, allegedly occupied by a unit headquarters. Twenty-five officers wearing artillery, tank and infantry insignia left the building at 3 p.m. [REDACTED] was parked in front of the house. *
